GERMAN PRINCE LOSES 100,000 MEN

French Army Steadily Moves on Stronghold of Lorraine

DEFENSE OF METZ IS PRESENT PLAN

GERMAN DRIVE HAS AT LAST COME TO AN END

Railway Trains Departing From Scene Filled With Dead and Wounded

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Sept. 28.—Reports from the Champagne front show that the German crown prince's army has been shattered in the newest attacks. His resistance was so desperate that all the railways to the east and north are filled with German wounded. Officers estimate that his army lost 100,000 men in this and previous assaults. The German drive against Verdun is gradually becoming a defense of Metz, with the French getting nearer to the Lorraine stronghold.

GERMAN TRENCHES STREWN WITH DEAD

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Sept. 28.—The new offensive movement of the allies has resulted in further gains in the Artois region near Souchez and Campagne, according to an official announcement. The German counter attack is said to have failed. The Germans left the ground before the trenches covered with dead.

ALLIES' ATTACK SAID TO HAVE FAILED

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Sept. 28.—The Overseas agency asserts that the French and British attack has already failed at points along the length of the German line of over 300 miles, precluding the possibility of breaking through.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Sept. 28.—The Overseas agency states that Greece has assured Serbia it would resist the passage of foreign troops through Greek territory.

GRAND ARMY MEN MEET IN WASHINGTON

FAST-FADING UNION HOST IN FORTY-NINTH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Ablaze with patriotic color, Washington welcomes today the advance guard of the fast-fading Union host coming to participate in the forty-ninth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Thousands of veterans already have arrived and every train brings hundreds more who fifty years ago marched under the eyes of Grant and in the wake of Sherman in the great military review the world had ever seen.

Thirty thousand survivors of the historic march up Pennsylvania avenue from the Capitol to the White House, which marked the close of the Civil War, are expected to be here to commemorate on Wednesday that world-thrilling spectacle. In September, 1865, President Johnson bared his head to 150,000 triumphant heroes of the Union army. President Wilson next Wednesday will greet those who remain, after half a century, to make the march again.

Extraordinary preparations have been made for the encampment because it probably will be the last Grand Army reunion in the capital. To this end plans for entertaining a hundred thousand visitors have been perfected and the event already gives

ULTIMATUM IS GIVEN IN HOUSE OF LORDS

ENGLAND WILL EXTEND ALL POSSIBLE HELP TO FRIENDS IN THE BALKAN STATES

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Sept. 28.—Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, today told the house of commons that "if the Bulgarian mobilization results in Bulgaria assuming an aggressive attitude on the side of our enemies, we are prepared to give our friends in the Balkans all the support in our power in the manner most welcome to them, without reserve or qualification."

BIRTH CENTENNIAL OF FAMOUS SONG WRITER

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Sept. 28.—The big day of 1915 for the inhabitants of the little Thuringian city of Schmalkalden was the 5th of this month, marking the 100th anniversary of the birth there of Karl Wilhelm, author of "Die Wacht am Rhein." Wilhelm is buried in the little Schmalkalden graveyard, and a statue stands in his honor in a prominent place. The celebration in honor of his birth included the singing of songs written by him, both at his grave and at the memorial and the decoration of the house in which he died.

COMMISSION FORM IS HERE TO STAY

ADDRESS ON GOVERNMENT BY PRESIDENT OF STEVENS INSTITUTE

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—President Humphreys of the Stevens Institute of Technology in an address here today said that he believes government by commission is here to stay but that it is now over-developed. The passage of 60,000 new laws in the last five years necessarily means superficial legislation.

HERMAN BERGLOND IS IN LINE FOR FORTUNE

FORMER RESIDENT OF TONOPAH HEIR TO LAND, MONEY AND OTHER HEREDITAMENTS

Some years ago Herman Berglund was a miner in this camp. He went from here to Bellehelen and worked for a time, when all trace of him was lost. Two years ago the Bonanza published an advertisement requesting his address, but there was no response.

Now come O. Swanford and Axel Frisk from Slayton, Minn., in search of the missing man. They are representatives of a wealthy estate that has been left him, consisting of a big wheat farm, money in bank, stocks, bonds and other good things of this life, or what will purchase them.

CASE CONTINUED

The case of McIntosh vs. Knox, which was called in the district court today, was postponed for an indefinite period on request of counsel. It will probably come to trial the latter part of October or first of November.

BORDER TROUBLES ARE CAUSED BY SOCIALISTS

COMMERCIAL INTERESTS IN LOS ANGELES SAID TO BE THE FINANCIAL BACKERS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The Carranza consul, Bellman, at San Antonio, who is here, told the attorney general that the border troubles are caused by the followers of the Socialist Jesus Magan, who is living in Los Angeles, backed by commercial interests. The raiders, he said, are Carranza deserters.

CHINA TO HAVE A HUGE WOOL FACTORY

(By Associated Press.)
SHANGHAI, Sept. 28.—Acting upon the suggestion of the minister of commerce and agriculture and other advocates of home-made goods for China, one of the large textile factories at Shanghai is now being transformed into a mill for the manufacture of knitting wool. The amount of woolen yarn sold through this port annually is said to be more than $35,000,000 in gold.

Shanghai merchants have agreed to push the local yarn. At present the capacity of the mill, which will actually begin work in a few days, is only 1000 yards daily. The manufacturers promise as good a quality as the heavy wool imported so extensively for use in the cold sections of China. There are forty wholesale agents who deal almost exclusively in woolen products.

LARGE FORCE OF MEN AT WORK AT LUDWIG

MILL NEARLY COMPLETED AND FURNACES ABOUT READY TO BE INSTALLED

The furnace for the manufacture of nitric acid at the leaching plant started Monday and the crushing of ore in the new mill at Ludwig commenced Thursday, says the Times. The mill is about completed, though the furnaces and dryers are not yet fully installed and some additional tanks are rushing to completion the wedge furnace which will treat 250 tons of ore per day, when finished. The oxidized ore yard, which will accommodate 2500 tons, is also built and ready for use, receiving the ores now passing through the crushers. The repair work on the mines is all done and as soon as the mill and furnaces are completed a large force of men, probably 100, will be put to work in the mine, largely increasing the number now employed on the leaching tank plant, finishing the mill, tanks and furnaces and installing the remaining machinery, is about 100. At first it is expected to treat from 200 to 300 tons per day and then as soon as the present plant is finished to increase the tonnage to 500 tons per day.

OTTO HOOKER NOW PURSUED BY POSSE

Convict Kills Warden of Oregon Penitentiary and Fatally Wounds Marshal

(By Associated Press.)
SALEM, Ore., Sept. 28.—With four bullets left in the revolver with which he killed Warden Harry Minto of the Oregon penitentiary and fatally wounded Marshal Benson, from whom he wrested the weapon, Otto Hooker, a convict, is still free, despite the search of sheriff's posses in several counties totaling 200 men. Twice he was reported cornered, but evaded his pursuers and disappeared. The officers expect a fight to the death. Hooker preferring to die rather than surrender. It is the most desperate man hunt since the days of Tracy.
